COUNTY COURT at 9 o'clock.
ADVANCE.—Now for an advance in the price of coal.
U. S. DISTRICT COURT this morning at 10 o'clock.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Three weeks to-night the first performance will be given in the new Opera House.

ADMINISTRATOR APPOINTED.—Mary Mass was appointed by the County Court on Saturday, Administrator upon the estate of David Mass, deceased. Bond, $2,500.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—An auctioneer Miller sold on Saturday last, 72 acres and a fraction of land on the National Road, 44 miles east of the city, to Bishop R. V.
 Wheelan for $4,750.

COURTS.—The multiplicity of courts now in session in this city is terribly annoying to attorneys having a large practice, and, likely, cases in all of the courts on the same day.

QUITLY WAITING.—Several unfortunates were in the lock-up last evening quietly awaiting the appearance of His Honor, Judge Cranmer. He will be on hand to attend to their wants at 9 this morning.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—The September term of the above court, Judge Cranmer will commence this afternoon at 2 o'clock.
 We presume a decision will be rendered to-day in the motion for a new trial in the Oxtoby-Constant slander suit.

WASHINGTON HALL.—The entertainment given in Washington Hall on Saturday afternoon and evening by Buffalo Bill's company were very largely attended and those who were there were well pleased with the performance.

BUFFALO BILL.—Buffalo Bill has been here and is gone. But not the original Bill. No, no, not him. The original Bu-falo William, he of the curly locks and the star topped boots, can be seen sitting in front of the Grant House almost any nice day.

GOING AHEAD.—The special committee on house numbering have appointed D.
 Gelger to assign the proper numbers to the lots in that portion of the city north of the creek, and George Forbes, a member of the committee, for south of the creek. They commenced operations on Saturday.

FOOT CRUSHED.—Wm. Sorg, a lad about 14 years of age, had one of his feet very badly crushed in La Belle coal bank Saturday morning, by accidentally getting it between two passing cars. One of the principal bones was broken, and the foot will be useless for a long time, as such bruises mend slowly.

POLICE COURT.—Police Court Saturday morning was a failure, the lock-up being empty, and the docket bare.
 At the four o'clock session Saturday afternoon the following cases were disposed of: Robert Miller, disorderly, $5 and costs; Rosa Dixon, disorderly, $5 and costs; Ed. McVay, disorderly, $5 and costs; Louis Miller, drunk, continued. Louis was too drunk to have a hearing, hence the case was laid over until this morning.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The dedicatory services of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, in the Eighth Ward, were celebrated yesterday, the Church being entirely completed. The services were under the direction of Bishop Wheelan, who delivered the discourse. The St. Patrick and St. Alphonsus Societies turned out in procession, marching through the streets in honor of the occasion. The services continued nearly the entire day, and were very largely attended by all classes from all parts of the city, many strangers also being present.

ATTEMPTED ARREST.—Office Adam Wernig, of the 8th Ward, attempted on Saturday night to arrest Tim Robbett and two of the Blatney boys, they being drunk and very disorderly. They showed fight and finally pitched into and overpowered the officer and gave him a severe beating.
 His head was very badly cut, and his nose was bitten nearly off, besides other bruises and cuts. It was undoubtedly a put up job to pound Adam, the chaps taking the advantage of the absence of officer Baum, who is out of the city on business.
 After finishing Adam the boys went across the river, and are now rustling in Ohio.
 They will most likely make a pretty long visit for their return here would not be pleasant for them.

COUNTY COURT.—The following business was transacted by the above Court, Judge Cochran, on Saturday last: In the case of P. Wooster, appellee, vs. M. H.
 Gregg, appellant, two cases (appeal from justice) a motion to dismiss, made by ap-pellee, was overruled.
 Higgins vs. W. H. Fleming and J. F.
 Smith, argument was heard on a demurrer to the declaration as not sufficient in law or correct in notice. Opinion reserved.
 State vs. C. Wagner, demurrer overruled.
 Michel & Erb vs. Hanes & Wilson, motion to dismiss sustained for want of jurisdiction of justice.
 Anton Spear, appellee, vs. Louis Miller, appellant. Case heard and verdict returned by jury for $21.03 in favor of the plaintiff and appellee.
 Bond & Sweeney, appellees, vs. George Harmon, appellant; appeal from justice.
 Case heard before jury, who returned a verdict for appellees of $45.75.
 O. D. Thompson vs. John Stephens, and same vs. Lewis Marshall; unlawful de-tainer. Jury awarded possession of the premises to plaintiff in each case.
 State vs. Richard Miller, indicted for felony and tried on 24 inst., was discharged from custody.
 After our reporter left the court room on Friday evening the jury returned a verdict in the case of Cavanagh vs. the P. W. & K. R. Co. for $121.03 in favor of the plaintiff, being the amount claimed.

SERENADE—BREAD-DOWN.—A party of gentlemen from Benwood, most of them employees of the Benwood Iron Works, left Benwood on Saturday evening, in an omnibus, accompanied by Peabody's string band. They were bound for the residence of the Secretary of the mill, Major Alonzo Loring, at Elm Grove, to whom they intended to tender a serenade in expression of their esteem for him as an employer, a gentleman, and a friend. They reached the Major's residence about 9 o'clock, and were warmly received by him and his friends, all enjoying themselves to a high degree, singing and dancing until a late hour. During the evening Captain Jinks was rendered in good style by the eminent song and dance man of Benwood.

About midnight the Benwood party took their departure. All went well with them for a short time, but before they had proceeded far their "Bus broke down." They routed Frank Walters out and secured one of his wagons, in which cool conveyance they went home, reaching Benwood about 6 o'clock yesterday morning. The trip will long be remembered by every participant.

THE CHOLERA.—There is no cholera in Wheeling. There has not been a case for more than a week; and, of course, the probabilities are that we will have no more cases of that dread disease this season. We say this much for the benefit of our country readers, as it seems the wildest rumors are afloat about the ravages of the disease, if the half of which were true, our city would be depopulated before the close of the month. We saw a letter Saturday from a gentleman down the river, who said that reports were there current that our city was receiving a terrible visitation from this disease, and the same reports reach us from other quarters. These reports are started by interested parties, and are entirely without foundation in fact.

MISS PATTERSON'S READINGS.—By a card in our advertising columns will be seen that at the earnest solicitation of many friends, Miss Jeanie Patterson has consented to give another reading at McLure House Hall this evening. Miss Patterson's entertainment on Thursday evening, last is said to have been one of the most eloquent performances ever given in this city, and we feel assured that the hall will be crowded this evening.
 Tickets may be procured at J. D. Stanton's or at the hall this evening. Price 50 cents.

GAY GAMBLERS.—Saturday evening last George Westwood swore out a warrant charging Lee Harris with exhibiting a faro bank on that day. Harris was taken to the city lock-up where he deposited $100 for his appearance this morning. He was then taken before Esq. Gillespie who required him to deposit $300 for his appearance at a future day.

Harris then turned the tables on Westwood and preferred like charges against him. Westwood gave security for his appearance.

HOTEL CHAMBER.—Mr. F. W. Marsh, for several months Superintendent of the St. James Hotel, resigned his position some days ago. Mr. F. T. Brewster, clerk at the St. James, formerly at the McLure, has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. Marsh was popular with the guests of the house, who regret to lose him. Mr. Brewster is a wide-awake, energetic gentleman, who spares no pains to accommodate his guests, and if he continues as he has begun can hardly fail to add to the popularity of this excellent house.

I WILL sell a black Alpaca at 50 cents,
